

★ ★ ★ Saunterings --- Society ★ ★ ★

THERE will be quite some barbe-cue at the new tennis club tonight, when the members and some of their friends will give a house warming which they say will outdo anything of the kind ever seen or heard here.

There will be tennis all afternoon and as soon as the twilight passes the feasting and "ragging" will begin, and the pretty club house will be properly dedicated. It is thought that this will be only the beginning of a series of affairs that will make the place the most popular Saturday night rendezvous in town for the limited number who are sponsors for the success of the club. They can enjoy themselves with much more freedom than at country clubs outside of the city, as there is little or no restraint on club life in town and it is predicted that the club will become so popular that the waiting list will be an unusually long one.

Speaking of the informalities of club life, the innovation in golfing costumes inaugurated at the Country club on Wednesday during the luncheon hour was probably the most startling effect that has ever been seen on the course, and it is whispered that the directors have suggested to the member who created the sensation that it would be just as well if in the future he adorn himself with a few more clothes than would have been a joy to a cave man. B. V. D.'s are cool and comfortable, but when alone the display should be confined to a haberdasher's window or the privacy of one's apartments.

The J. F. Nibleys entertained a number of their friends at their home in Federal Heights on Wednesday evening at a "rag" party followed by a supper, which lasted until burglar time, when after the guests departed and the intruders appeared, Mr. Nibley handily gathered one in and landed him at the police station. Considering the novelty of the party and the delightful time had by all the guests, it was a little inconsiderate in the host not to include them in witnessing the predicament of the house breaker. It may have been an oversight on his part, but it establishes a precedent that will probably be an incentive for his guests in the future to stay until they are perfectly certain that the entire evening's program is over.

This has been a week of weddings and of entertainments for the brides-to-be, the most notable society event of the week being the marriage of Miss Vera Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Edwards, to Morton R. Cheesman, which took place at St. Paul's church on Friday evening, in the presence of the largest and most fashionable gathering of society people that has attended any affair of the kind during the month of roses. The decorations and all the appointments at the church and at the Edwards home were on a most elaborate scale. Mr. and Mrs. Cheesman will remain away for a month or two and upon their return will make their home in this city, where they are both so popular and widely known.

The marriage of Miss Anite Parkinson of Franklin, Idaho, and Harlow Eldredge Smoot took place on Wednesday in the temple, a reception following in the evening at the home of Mrs. C. A. Eldredge, where assisting her in receiving with the bride and groom were Mrs. Reed Smoot, Mrs. L. G. Richards, Mrs. T. L. Center and Mrs. E. L. Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Smoot will make their home in Preston, Idaho.

Miss Edna Foulks of San Francisco is the guest of Miss Gladys McConaughy at her home on East Second South street, and on Tuesday Miss McConaughy was the hostess at one of the prettiest bridge tea of the season in honor of her guest and of Miss Josephine Weil, whose marriage to Samuel R. Meyers takes place in August. Miss McConaughy was assisted during the afternoon by Miss Dorothy Rooklidge, Miss Edith Godbe, Mrs. Charles Stimpson, Mrs. R. E. McConaughy and Miss Helen Evans.

A couple of dozen friends of the Billy Reids motored down to their home in the country on Wednesday evening to enjoy their hospitality at bridge and an informal supper, following which the guests repaired to the lawns, which had been costly arranged for the occasion. Later the entire party motored home.

So many of the girls are going to appear in "The Mikado" to be given at Wandamere a week from Wednesday night that their strenuous days and evenings will be busier than ever during the coming week.

Model J

GOODWIN'S CORSETS

FRANCIS, Inc.

323-4-5 Felt Building

Phone Wasatch 4842

SALT LAKE CITY

The beautiful stage pictures in "The Mikado" and the opportunities for elaborate costuming and charming effects will only enhance the beauty of the participants and it is very likely that there will be a mad scramble for seats in the bald headed row.

Many of the men have gone so far as to declare that if they are unable to get seats, they will put on their bathing suits and float in front of the stage in the lagoon during the performance.

This is distinctly a new idea and if the threat is carried out it will be almost as interesting to the remainder of the audience as the opera itself. The three little maids from school, Winnifred Smith, as Yum, Yum, Mrs. Harold Siegel as Pitti Sing, and Isabelle Shiffer as Peep-Bo, are making one of the biggest hits of every rehearsal, and their appearance at Wandamere on July 8th, will probably be the signal for a great demonstration of the part of their smart friends.

HAPPENINGS AND WHEREABOUTS.

In honor of Miss Jean Hutchinson, who has recently returned from Berkeley, Miss Margaret Hutchinson entertained at a luncheon on Tuesday with covers laid for sixteen.

On Tuesday Miss Dorothy Dwyer, who will be married shortly, was the guest of honor at a bridge tea given by Mrs. Robert Wilson and Mrs. Earl G. Van Law. They were assisted by Mrs. W. N. Williams, Mrs. Harry Clark, Mrs. W. F. Jennings, Miss Georgia Williams, Miss Hazel Clark, Miss Eva Lund and Miss Priscilla Cartwright.

Mrs. T. W. Boyer entertained at a large and beautiful luncheon given at the Country Club on Wednesday.

A beautiful luncheon of Wednesday was that given by Mrs. James E. Jennings at the Alta Club, which was attended by twenty-five of her friends. It took place in the gold room of the club and the decorations were most effective in pink and green. During the luncheon music was furnished by the troubadours.

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Dentor Evans have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Helen Denton, to Paul Nelden which will take place Thursday at high noon at the First Presbyterian church. The young people will make their home at Hood River, Oregon.

Miss Dorothy Marioneaux entertained informally at a Kensington at her home on Monday in honor of Miss Mary Luman, who recently returned from National Park Seminary. Miss Marioneaux was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. Thomas Marioneaux.

Mrs. Harold Russel has returned

Wear Your Own Bathing Suit

You wouldn't think of wearing another man's underwear. Why wear a public bathing suit? Our bathing suits are made in two-piece and the new combination style.

In fine wool and silk and wool.
$3.00 to $5.00.

M. E. Life Co.

MENS FURNISHINGS AND HATS
155 MAIN ST.